Website: www.cfsaz.org

In CFSA's role as convener, facilitator, collaborator and educator, it works directly with nonprofits, government, the business community, and our other partners in philanthropy to inspire and enact long-term solutions. The foundation invests in developing leadership capacity within all of Southern Arizona's diverse communities, and trusts that those communities are capable of creating systemic change. The foundation confronts racism and discrimination, and establishes practices that embed its values at the core. It actively recruits the participation and inclusion of Southern Arizona's diverse cultural and social groups in all of their activities, at all levels of policy development, and throughout all decision-making processes. Awards made by CFSA's various grant panels support organizations that do not discriminate in their employment practices, volunteer opportunities, or delivery of programs and services on the basis of race, religion, gender or gender identity (including gender nonconformity and status as a transgender individual), gender expression, sexual orientation, age, ancestry, citizenship, ethnicity, familial status, socioeconomic status (economic circumstances), color, creed, sex (including pregnancy), phases of parenthood, national origin, marital status, veteran status (past, current, or prospective service in the armed forces), genetic information, physical characteristics or appearance, mental or physical disability, or any other status prohibited by applicable law.
